SUNDAY READINGS

First Reading:

Early and often did the LORD, the God of their fathers, send his messengers to them, for he had compassion on his people and his dwelling place. But they mocked the messengers of God, despised his warnings, and scoffed at his prophets, until the anger of the LORD against his people was so inflamed that there was no remedy. (2 Chr 36:15–16)

Psalm:

Let my tongue be silenced, if I ever forget you! (Ps 137)

Second Reading:

God, who is rich in mercy, because of the great love he had for us, even when we were dead in our transgressions, brought us to life with Christ. (Eph 2:4–5)

Gospel:

For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. (Jn 3:16)

Gospel Meditation

March 10, 2024
4th Sunday of Lent

Our national pastime isn't baseball. It's what the Bible calls "condemning the world." We generally enjoy pronouncing curses upon those whom we see as trouble, wrong, or evil. Don't believe me? Listen to almost any podcast, cable news network, or social media platform to hear it. It will be some version of: "We all agree that if they are eradicated, things will be great." Condemning is almost always clothed in virtue. It basks in its good intentions. That's why it is so attractive. Condemning seems like our best path to saving what is good.

What a shock, then, to hear Jesus announce: "For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him" (Jn 3:17). He comes to save the world, as we all want, but he will accomplish it without an act of condemnation. How hard it is to accept this! Condemning feels godlike. I judge who and what must be lost to protect the good. But in the light of Jesus' endless mercy and love, this is the least godlike thing we can do.

Lenten challenge: This week, I invite you to give up the delicious experience of condemning whomever in the world you most would like to see gone. Perhaps write down their names. Secondly, I invite you to consider fasting from any media that feeds the tasty but deadly tendency to condemn.

— Father John Muir

Charity, Unity, Fraternity, and Patriotism are the core guiding principles of the Knights of Columbus. We are visible in the St Gabriel Parish and beyond serving people and helping the Parish carry out its mission. This is work that doesn't feel like work at all because we're doing it with a great bunch of guys who are motivated and friendly.

If the work of the Knights sounds interesting, see any member or find our leaders on the Parish website at:
<https://stgacc.org/knights-of-columbus>.

Reminder that donuts and coffee will be moved into the hall to better accommodate parishioners who want to sit over a cup of coffee and visit with friends.

March Events:

The Fourth Degree Assembly meeting will be held on March 21 at 6:00 PM.
The Council business meeting will be held on March 21 at 7:00 PM.

Feed. Clothe. House. Heal.

Thank you to our parishioners! We are pleased to share an example of how your contributions made toward the Match Campaign have been used:

A hard working neighbor, struggling to maintain meager living accommodations, contacted St. Gabriel SVdP for assistance. He was behind in his rent and had received an APS cut-off notice. A SVdP home visit team was able to help this neighbor get caught up by paying these bills - thanks to the generosity of SVdP donors. During our visits we occasionally learn about additional needs which are also taken care of. Our visits always end in prayer with our neighbor, assuring them that God desires to be in their lives.

The support for SVdP work in St. Gabriel parish is critical and very much appreciated by our neighbors in need, as well as by the dedicated members of the SVdP Conference.

Would you like to know how you can participate in our Conference?

Lent is a time to celebrate the reconciling love and the healing graces our Lord offers us, especially in preparation for Easter.

Before celebrating the Sacrament of Penance, one should prepare themselves with an examination of conscience; a "prayerful self-reflection on our words and deeds in the light of the Gospel to determine how we may have sinned against God"

(— Glossary, CCC)

Building Our Domestic Church Series

It is in the context of the family that we first learn who God is and to prayerfully seek His will for us. We offer you some helpful suggestions on how to build your "domestic church" through a life of prayer that can help all the members of your family.

Tools For Building a Domestic Church:

Talk freely about the presence of God in the joys & sorrows of your life.

Eucharistic Adoration

"It continues to amaze me that I stayed away from Church and my faith as long as I did. But I am even more amazed and overjoyed at how great it feels to be back. Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament has been such a comfort to me. I feel that he takes me in His arms and looks after me each and every day. I just love to pour out all my joys and sorrows and problems to Him and I feel He listens and takes care of everything for me. It gives me a great serenity and peace when facing the daily chaos of life and living"

Young woman, who has recently come back to the Church and has started weekly Adoration

ADORATION CHAPEL HOURS:

Benediction at 7:45pm
Jesus invites you.

ARIZONA MARCH FOR LIFE

Friday, March 1st 2024

St. Gabriel Respecting Life Ministry attended the Arizona March for Life with ACS Students & Parishioners to pray and march for the end to abortion and the culture of death.

"But responsibility likewise falls on the legislators who have promoted and approved abortion laws, and, to the extent that they have a say in the matter, on the administrators of the health-care centers where abortions are performed. In this sense abortion goes beyond the responsibility of individuals and beyond the harm done to them, and takes on a distinctly social dimension. It is a most serious wound inflicted on society and its culture by the very people who ought to be society's promoters and defenders."

-Pope John Paul II, Evangelium vitae (1995), no. 59
