THE HEART OF PURITY

Gospel Meditation

September 1, 2024
22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Purity isn't popular at the moment. Or is it? Look at a rack of health magazines or at popular podcasts. You'll see an infinite ocean of regulations and rituals of diets, intermittent fasting, morning sun rituals, intense juice detox practices, lists of dangerous foods, mental practices, as well as long lists of dos and don'ts for the proper cleaning of clothes, dishes, cars, houses, pets, and children. Like it or not, we long to be pure, clean, and without blemish.

This question of purity haunted people in Jesus' day, too. The Pharisees and scribes (the leading purity authorities of the day) criticize Jesus, asking, "Why do your disciples not live according to the tradition of the elders, but eat with defiled hands?" (Mark 7:5). Jesus responds by saying, "There is nothing outside the person that can defile him if it goes into him; but the things that come out of the person are what defile the person" (Mark 7:15). What does he mean, and how can it help us be pure?

We've probably all heard the somewhat shop-worn interpretation that Jesus replaces the ritual, exterior notion of purity with a moral, interior one. Christianity is thus seen as a kind of moral re-tooling, as if religion doesn't make us pure. Good moral intentions do. But this doesn't take the rest of Jesus' ministry seriously enough, nor our obsession with purity. The better reading is that Jesus audaciously offers himself as the ultimate source of human purity — from within each human heart. Both our religious ritual practices and our moral actions are meant to flow from this encounter with Jesus the Lord. When we are in friendship with him, everything becomes pure for us.

#1 - Slowly read scripture until something hits you. Then listen.

Celebrating Children at St. Gabriel the Archangel

To the parents of our young children, may we suggest...

- ⊕ Relax! God put the wiggle in children; don't feel you have to suppress it in God's house.
- ⊕ Sit toward the front where it's easier to see and hear.
- ⊕ Quietly explain the parts of the Mass.
- ⊕ Sing the hymns, pray & voice the responses. Children learn liturgical behavior by copying you.
- ⊕ If you need to leave Mass with your child, please feel free to do so, but please come back.
- ⊕ Remember that in the way we welcome children in church directly affects the way they respond to Church, to God and to Christ. Let them know that they are at home in this liturgical gathering.

To the members of the parish...

A smile of encouragement is always welcome to parents with small, active children.

Welcome to the Team

Mrs. Garcia

I graduated from ASU with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Education. I decided to then continue my education, and I recently graduated from Grand Canyon University with a Master's degree in Psychology. During this time I was able to gain certification from the state of Arizona in school counseling. I live in Scottsdale with my husband and three children. I have a son at ASU, a daughter attending NDP, and another son attending St. John XXIII.

In my free time I love to be with my family exploring our beautiful state. We love to hike, fish, and ride bikes. I am also an active member of my parish St. Bernadette.

I am grateful to be a part of this wonderful community here at ACS. I have been out of the school setting for a few years so am happy to be back and working with students here at ACS. I hope I get the chance to meet some of you this year. God Bless!
