SUNDAY READINGS

First Reading:

Then the glory of the LORD shall be revealed,
and all people shall see it together;
for the mouth of the LORD has spoken. (40:5)

Psalm:

O bless the Lord, my soul. (Ps 104)

Second Reading:

He saved us through the bath of rebirth
and renewal by the Holy Spirit. (Ti 3:5)

Gospel:

After all the people had been baptized
and Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, heaven was opened and the Holy Spirit descended upon him
in bodily form like a dove. (Lk 3:22)

EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

Gospel Meditation

January 12th
The Baptism of the Lord

In my second year of theology studies, I went to confession to a priest visiting the seminary for a three-day retreat. My heart wasn't in it. I was going through the motions. I confessed my sins and waited for his response. The priest said, "For your penance, I'd like you to go into the chapel and repeat the words 'You are my beloved Son, with you I am well pleased' (Luke 3:22) until they mean something to you." Easy penance, I thought.

But to my surprise, I struggled to say those words. I sensed a strong interior resistance blocking them. How could God be well-pleased with me? He couldn't be, I thought. A battle within me ensued. Two hours later, the resistance vanished, and I found myself able to speak, and claim as my own, those marvelous words. I emerged from the chapel with a new, deep, peaceful conviction that I was indeed God's beloved son.

Those words are a precious gift from heaven to all of us. Jesus' baptism, which we celebrate this week, offers them to us. Are we willing to receive these words anew? Many things can block this deepening of our baptismal identity: failings, sins, disappointments, traumas, problems, and so on. Yet God's love is always greater. This week I challenge you to prayerfully repeat these words over yourself — or perhaps over someone you're struggling to love — until those words find a home in your heart.

Knights of Columbus®

Many of us make New Years resolutions to improve our lives in some way. While healthier diet, increasing exercise, kinder demeanor and the like are all worthwhile pursuits, we really should be asking God how we can better serve him. What changes can we make that will bring us closer to God and eternal life? We only have to ask. Maybe it's serving the community with the Knights of Columbus? Spending time with Jesus in Eucharistic Adoration? Praying the Rosary before Mass? The answers are there for us when we are ready to hear them.

If the work of the Knights sounds interesting, see any member or find our leaders on the Parish website at:

MISSION APPEAL

FOR THE

ROMAN CATHOLIC DIOCESE OF KAFANCHAN, NIGERIA.

Dear St. Gabriel's Parishioners,

I come before you to ask you to support a worthy cause in my home diocese, the Roman Catholic Diocese of Kafanchan, Nigeria.

Bishop John Dolan has graciously approved that an appeal be made to support the work of evangelization and the developmental works of Most Rev. Julius Kundi, Bishop of Kafanchan Diocese.

The appeal is scheduled for January 10 and 11, 2025. The proceeds of our appeal will be channeled towards building a befitting diocesan secretariat, hosting the curia and other offices to facilitate the effective administration of our diocese.

Interestingly, I come from Kafanchan, located over 200 kilometers from the state headquarters, in the southern part of Kaduna State in Northern Nigeria, West Africa. The Diocese was created because of pastoral exigencies from the Kaduna and Jos Metropolitan Archdioceses and was erected on October 21, 1995. Southern Kaduna can be said to be an oasis of vocations for men and women who embrace the priestly and religious life. Our parishes are growing in leaps and bounds, with a robust Catholic population and a flourishing faith. Northern Nigeria, where Kafanchan Diocese is located, is predominantly Muslim. Most often, Christians who are in the minority face persecution and marginalization on account of their faith. In the recent past, those who are familiar with events on electronic and print media would be aware of the violence that Boko Haram, Banditry, and Fulani Headsmen have unleashed on believers, these have led to the massive destruction of lives and properties. My family has personally suffered losses on account of these attacks as my family house was burnt down and close relations were killed.

Our churches have been attacked, families have equally been displaced, and people live in fear. Yet, despite these trials, the faith of the people remains unbroken. The resilience and courage of the faithful in Nigeria inspire us to strengthen our commitment to the Gospel. The occasion of this Mission Appeal offers us a unique opportunity to consider what it means to be in solidarity with our brothers and sisters in Kafanchan, who are marginalized and in dire need of our support.

Our solidarity should not just be a passive feeling of compassion; but an active engagement that calls us to respond by extending a hand of friendship to our brothers and sisters in Kafanchan, Nigeria, who need our support.

I, passionately request your help to make the realization of my home diocese's objective possible. I know you will help me achieve this goal. I know I can always count on you. "God loves a cheerful giver" (2 Cor 9:8). There is joy in helping those in need.

If you would like to make a donation, please make the check payable to St. Gabriel Church, please add a memo "Nigeria Mission Appeal".

My profound appreciation to Fr. Chad King, Bill Marcotte, and all of you for the opportunity to present our needs and solicit your support. May the good Lord reward you with His choicest blessings.

Thank you,

Fr. Timothy Doga
Parochial Vicar
