Gospel Meditation

February 16th, 2025
6th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Luke 6:17, 20-26

I craved four things as a teenager: success in sports, food, fun and the attention of popular people. However, I noticed that as I acquired them, I was more unsatisfied than before. So, I'd strive even more energetically, achieve more, and the sense of emptiness was greater still. These four things started to feel like burdens or even curses. Soon after, I encountered Christ in my high school youth group. Experiencing his love was totally different than anything those four things previously produced. It produced a lasting happiness.

Jesus utters a kind of four-fold curse in this week's Gospel of Saint Luke's "woes": "Woe to you who are rich...who are filled now...who laugh now...who are well-spoken of" (cf. Luke 6:24-26). How marvelous that these correspond perfectly to the four things that obsessed my teenage soul: riches, food, laughter and good reputation. The "woes" the Lord speaks are warnings: when those things are the purpose of your life, you'll be miserable. He is saying, "You'll be happy, or blessed, in the measure that these things do not determine the shape of our lives, and the kingdom of God does."

To some degree, we're all spiritual teenagers, addicted to one or more of those four "woes." How splendid that the Lord wants his to bless us – that is, to satisfy us, make us laugh with joy, and in the kingdom of God, offer us what will truly satisfy us. But first let's admit what is causing our "woes."

Knights of Columbus®

This past week we celebrated Valentine's Day and this coming week we will celebrate President's Day. The common thread between this great saint and the founders and early leaders of the United States is unwavering commitment to the ideals they believed in. Commitment can be demonstrated in many ways, but action is always required. Whether it is working with the St. Vincent de Paul society on the upcoming clothing drive or running Lenten Fish Frys (coming soon!), you will see ordinary men from the St. Gabriel community demonstrating their commitment to the Parish and the Catholic Faith with action. Although it may sometimes look difficult, it is always rewarding and gratifying. If you join us, we're happy to prove it to you!

If the work of the Knights sounds interesting, see any member or find our leaders on the Parish website at stgacc.org/knights-of-columbus.

Upcoming events:

The Knights of Columbus leads the Rosary on the last weekend of every month in the chapel 30 minutes before each Mass.
