Sunday Readings

First Reading

"Give your servant, therefore, an understanding heart to judge your people and to distinguish right from wrong. For who is able to govern this vast people of yours?" (1 Kgs 3:9)

Psalm:

Lord, I love your commands. (Ps 119)

Second Reading:

We know that all things work for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose. (Rom 8:28)

Gospel:

"The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure buried in a field, which a person finds and hides again, and out of joy goes and sells all that he has and buys that field." (Mt 13:44)

Gospel Meditation

July 26, 2026

Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Matthew 13:44-52

Around the time that the gold rushes ended in the nineteenth-century West, a curious phenomenon arose in New England known as money diggers. These were men who roamed the countryside with shovels, divining rods, and superstitious hope, convinced that treasure lay buried beneath their feet. Surely there must be gold under our feet. But there was not. The craze of these wild goose chases caused many to lose farms, families, and sanity.

In this week's Gospel, Jesus inaugurates a new era of spiritual money digging. He announces, "The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure buried in a field." He invites us to become treasure seekers who search in the right place. What is of greatest value is not money beneath our feet, but the infinite treasure hidden deep in the humanity of Jesus himself, God's own blessed life. The glory of heaven lies veiled in his ordinary life, his teaching, his suffering, his Church.

This teaching about the Kingdom changes things. Now we see the Church's doctrinal and moral teachings are not arbitrary rules. They are a treasure map. Follow them, and we will uncover divine happiness. Ignore them, and we will wander aimlessly, spade in hand, digging in empty fields, discouraged.

Where have we wasted energy seeking treasure in the wrong places? How have we given up on seeking the treasure of truly finding God's love for us? If so, let us repent of both. Then let us dust off our shovels and get back to digging deep into the field of Christ Jesus and his Church. After all, He never ceases seeking his treasure in us.

— Father John Muir

Knights of Columbus®

This week we hear Solon ask the Lord for “a listening heart to judge your people and to distinguish between good and evil”. Listening can be difficult, since it requires quieting both our inner and outer voices and focusing clearly on the quiet messages that God sends us. In his book The Power of Silence Robert Cardinal Sarah states “Silence is not an absence. On the contrary it is the manifestation of a presence, the most intense of all presences. In modern society silence has come into disrepute; this is the symptom of a serious, worrisome illness. The real questions in life are posed in silence. Our blood throbs through our veins without making any noise and we can hear our heartbeat only in silence”.

The Rosary and the Chaplet of Divine Mercy are prayed every weekday in the chapel at 7:30 AM. Mass follows at 8:15 AM. If time permits, it is a great way to start your day.

If the work of the Knights sounds interesting, see any member or find our leaders on the Parish website at <https://stgacc.org/knights-of-columbus>.

Upcoming events:

- Monday August 3 The Creek restaurant will donate 10% of the day's proceeds to the K of C Military Fund, which helps provide Christmas gifts for military families in need.
- Wednesday August 5 the Dynasty Chinese and Asian Cuisine restaurant will donate 10% of the proceeds from all tickets for guests who present the event flyer. Contact any Knights of Columbus members for more information.
- The next officers meeting will be held Tuesday August 18 at 7 PM.
- The Fourth Degree Assembly meeting will be held Thursday August 20 at 6 PM.
- The Council business meeting will be held on Thursday August 20 at 7 PM.
