Sunday Readings

First Reading

Forgive your neighbor's injustice; then when you pray,
your own sins will be forgiven. (Sir 28:2)

Psalms:

The Lord is kind and merciful, slow to anger, and rich in compassion. (Ps 103)

Second Reading:

None of us lives for oneself, and no one dies for oneself. For if we live, we live for the Lord, and if we die, we die for the Lord. (Rom 14:8)

Gospel:

Peter approached Jesus and asked him, "Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive? As many as seven times?" Jesus answered, "I say to you, not seven times but seventy-seven times." (Mt 18:21-22)

WELCOME!

David Wilmowski

Verso L'alto!

Hello everyone! My name is David Wilmowski, and I am a seminarian for the Diocese of Phoenix. I have been assigned to St. Gabriel's for the next nine months on a pastoral year, and I am very excited to get to know all of you! My home parish is St. Joan of Arc, and I have been in seminary for five years. Please pray for me during this time as I immerse myself in the life of the parish!

A COMMITMENT TO FORGIVE

Gospel Meditation

September 13, 2026
Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Matthew 18:21-35

In my parish, there was once a new employee who frequently told me she was sorry for various imperfections in her work. It could be a little tiring. I finally told her, "You know, you don't have to say 'sorry' so often." She looked me right in the eyes and said, "Father, you're right. I'm sorry." Her ear-to-ear grin betrayed that she enjoyed the irony — and that she would keep asking for forgiveness as often as she needed it.

The Gospel reading this week proclaims to us that God, in Jesus, delights in numerous requests for, and the granting of, forgiveness. To Peter's question, "Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive? As many as seven times?" Jesus responds, "I say to you, not seven times but seventy-seven times." In other words, Peter, stop counting.

Christian life should be marked by a commitment to frequent forgiveness. God never tires of forgiving us. His limitless love has overcome the power of vengeance, hatred, and division. We tap into that each and every time we ask for forgiveness or extend it to another.

How beautiful our hearts become when they become accustomed to frequent forgiveness! How joyful and attractive become our marriages, families, and parish communities! How light our souls feel when unburdened by the habit of keeping score.

Challenge: Name one thing, small or large, for which you could ask forgiveness from someone in your life. Then do it.

— Father John Muir

 Knights of Columbus Our Scripture readings today call us to put mercy into action: Sirach urges us to forgive our neighbor, and Jesus teaches Peter to forgive not seven times, but seventy-seven times. These readings invite us to practice charity through patience, compassion, and practical help for those who have hurt us or need our support. St. Paul's reminder that "none of us lives for oneself" points us toward unity, because our lives belong to the Lord and are strengthened when we stand together in faith and service. In our homes, parish, and community, we answer these readings by forgiving generously, serving humbly, and building relationships based on the principles of our Catholic faith.

The Rosary and the Chaplet of Divine Mercy are prayed every weekday in the chapel at 7:30 AM. Mass follows at 8:15 AM. If time permits, it is a great way to start your day.

If the work of the Knights sounds interesting, see the Parish website at:
