In the Eucharist, Jesus Christ, the Divine Healer, makes Himself present to us with boundless love and mercy, inviting us to bring Him our physical, emotional, and spiritual wounds, trusting in His power to heal, restore, and make us whole.

November 15, 2026
Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time
Matthew 25:14-30

A friend once took his young adult son to the casino for his birthday. He handed him $100 and said, "Let's have a great time." The son, a graduate student with limited money, quietly pocketed the money and refused to play. "I don't want to lose it," he said. But he missed the point: the money was not really his to pocket; it was his father's invitation to share an experience together.

God sees our gifts a bit like this. In Jesus' parable, a servant buries his master's talent and explains: "Master, I knew you were a demanding person…so out of fear I went off and buried your talent in the ground" (Matthew 25:24-25). The master condemns him not for failure but for refusing to risk. The servant's fear distorts his image of the master and leads to a small, loveless response. No love, no risk. No risk, no relationship.

How easily we fall into this trap! We treat God's gifts as fragile possessions rather than invitations. We play it safe, avoid risk, and tell ourselves we are wise and God is cruel. But Jesus praises those who trust the Master's goodness enough to act boldly. They are not reckless but confident enough in their Master to risk their gifts for Him.

So, what is my interior story about God right now? Is it marked by generosity, adventure, and trust? Or by fear, caution, and suspicion? That hidden narrative shapes everything. Because love, by its nature, always takes risks with, and for, the beloved.

— Father John Muir

Thanksgiving FOOD DRIVE

Did YOU know ??

One (1) in seven (7) adults, and 1 in 5 children, in Arizona do not reliably get enough to eat !!

To make matters worse, half a million Arizonans have lost access to SNAP benefits since this time last year.

These people are our neighbors, so this is where we come in!!

SVdP & the KofC are again joining forces to conduct a food drive, with proceeds going to a our local Food Bank, as well as to a poor parish in south Phoenix.

Food bags and donation guidelines will be distributed to parishioners after Masses on Nov. 14-15, with your contributions requested the following weekend, Nov. 21-22.

Please be generous,
